

UNIONS URGE EARLY CLOSING

Norman Names Committees to Visit the Omaha Retailers.

NO EXCUSE FOR LATE HOURS

Time Was When Laboring People Worked Saturday Afternoon and Could Not Make Purchases Before Night.

President George Norman of the Omaha Central Labor union has appointed committees which are calling upon some of the retailers in Omaha, endeavoring to further the movement for early closing on Saturday evening. True movement for closing the stores at 6 o'clock on Saturday evenings is the outgrowth of the female labor law which went into effect a few weeks ago limiting the hours women may be employed to nine hours in any one day and not more than fifty-four hours in any given week. This made it necessary for the stores to abandon their policy of keeping open until 9 o'clock at night, or to put on two shifts of women clerks, one to go to work at 3 and get off at 6 and the other to go to work at 10 and get off at 3 with an hour off at noon and an hour off for dinner.

Although the Retailers' Association of Omaha met something over a week ago and decided that the stores should close at 6 o'clock Saturday evenings during the five Saturdays in August some of the individual establishments have not yet decided to comply with the plan.

It is contended by those who favor closing that the real reason for being open late Saturday nights no longer exists as it did some years ago. Some years ago the mechanics, tradesmen and all laboring people in the city worked until evening on Saturdays and the stores were kept open for the accommodation of those who drew their pay late Saturday evening and desired to do some shopping after working hours. Now it is contended most of these are paid at noon and do not work Saturday afternoons. The result is that they can get into the stores and do their shopping just the same as others before night.

WINCHELL TAKES MORE MEN TO CHICAGO OFFICE

The appointment of R. L. Winchell to the position of traffic director of the Harriman lines of road is causing some of a strain on the Union Pacific headquarters' forces here. First Howard Bruner went to Chicago to join the Winchell forces. Then George Edwards was called to become stenographer for Mr. Bruner and now Major Conrad F. Schermann, chief clerk to Charles P. Ross, engineer on special work, has been tendered a position and has accepted.

Major Schermann will be assigned to duty August 1, but in just what capacity he does not know. The major is one of the old guard of the Union Pacific. He is about 40 years of age and started his railroad career at North Platte as a call boy. He continued with the company until the breaking out of the Spanish-American war, when he enlisted in the Third Nebraska, and before his discharge became a major. Returning home, he went into politics and was elected treasurer of Lincoln county. Upon the expiration of his term he again went with the Union Pacific, becoming private secretary to A. L. Mohler, then general manager. He continued in this position two and one-half years and then went to the office of Engineer Ross, where he has since remained.

Both Major Schermann and Mr. Edwards leave for Chicago tonight.

HUSBAND MALTREATS WIFE AFTER SHE "DISCOVERS" HIM

Mrs. James May, 314 Nicholas street, reported to the police that she was badly maltreated by her husband when she discovered him with another woman. The evidence was circumstantial and Mrs. May says that after she returned to the kitchen of their home her husband followed her there and then struck her over the head with a washboard.

Ninety Days for Beating Wife Who Rides on the Boat

William Braneff, 715 South Twenty-second street, returned home Wednesday evening and after accusing his wife with having been a patron of the steamer Saturn proceeded to brutally beat her. Neighbors called the police and Detectives Lahey and Murphy were dispatched to the scene. As they came in front of the house Braneff was just emerging from the front door and was hailed by the officers. Evidently recognizing the two he ran back inside with the two corpulent sleuths close on his heels. Up the front stairs he ran to the second story, as did his pursuers. Down the back stairs he flew, with Lahey and Murphy coming full steam ahead. Back to the front of the house he galloped, and, thinking to throw the officers off the track, again mounted the front stairs. Lahey had run out of gasoline by this time and was seated at the foot of the back descent mopping his brow. Murphy, however, who is more sympathetic, threw her into low speed and climbed the stairs at a gallop. Braneff kept on for the back stairs, but observing the heaving minion of the law seated below rushed for the front descent, but alas, too late! Murphy was almost at the top. Dashing from the hallway to a bedroom he raised the window and jumped to the ground, some twenty feet below, where he bruised his back book and sprained his brain sufficiently to allow the recuperated Lahey to pounce upon his unrelenting frame and inform him that "the carriage awaits him." Braneff now sweaters in a dungeon wearing away the first day of a ninety-day jail sentence which he received at the hands of Judge Altstadt.

EIGHT EAGLES TO FLY TO BALTIMORE CONVENTION

Eight Nebraskans left last night for Baltimore, Md., where they will attend the Grand Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, which will be held in that city for one week, beginning August 4. The following from Nebraska will attend: Tony Costanzo, W. E. Stockham and Jules Altshouse of Omaha; A. E. Groves, Florence; J. P. Donahay, South Omaha; W. F. Moran, Nebraska City; A. H. Mitterling, Fremont, and J. P. Barrett of South Omaha.

PROFESSIONAL BEGGARS GET NINETY DAYS IN JAIL

L. C. Park and Fred Bellomy of Chicago, living at 207 South Seventeenth street, were each treated to a ninety-day jail sentence as professional mendicants. The two men, after wrapping bandages about their arms and heads, peddled small articles from door to door collecting money on the strength of their seeming misfortunes. Several women grew suspicious when they observed Park roll a cigarette with a "broken arm" and notified the police.

GETS DIVORCE FROM WIFE INTERESTED IN MORMONISM

Charles D. McLaughlin, whose suit for divorce on the ground that his wife had been too much interested in Mormonism and in a Mormon apostle lasted a week in district court, was granted a decree by Judge English. The couple's residence was 314 Larimore avenue. The wife's name is Mrs. Anna B. McLaughlin.

SUES FOR NONDELIVERY OF HORSES HE PAID FOR

Robert L. Osborne has brought suit in district court against W. F. Keefe, J. S. Smith, Ernest O. Ames, Charles M. Thompson, Ben Vidler and the United States Live Stock company for $4,000, which he alleges he paid for fifty head of horses which were not delivered to him.
